

REBELS IN PLIANT MOOD

Process of Disarming Cuban Revolutionists Is Marked By Absence of Excitement.

MAGOON IS CHOSEN FOR CUBA'S GOVERNOR

French Newspapers Openly Sneer at the United States' Assurance that Annexation Is Not Contemplated.

HAVANA, Oct. 2.—The slaver with which the rebels are laying down their arms to the commission appointed to supervise the termination of the revolution, is the greatest surprise the provisional government has yet encountered in its smooth working propaganda.

Ready to Keep Order. The marines sent to Pinar del Rio last night were prepared to enforce order and see that the disbanded rebels dispersed quietly to their homes.

According to the testimony of an American named Harvey, formerly a Roosevelt Rough Rider, who has been with the insurgents, the amount of actual fighting during this revolution was very small.

Major Ladd will work tonight to carry out the disarming arrangements in the Cienfuegos district.

The disarming commission, which was sent to Santa Clara province, entered the Cienfuegos district this afternoon.

Since the cessation of hostilities, marauding bands have stolen or destroyed much property in Santa Clara province.

In addition to the American marines stationed at Cienfuegos there are detachments in other Santa Clara towns as follows: Cruces, 50; Espinosa, 25; Santo Domingo, 25; Sagua la Grande, 50; Palma, 35; and the Norzuega plantation, 12.

The disarming commission proceeded for Cienfuegos this afternoon, accompanied by the former rebel leader General Guzman.

Estimate of Damage. Officials of the Cuban Central Railroad estimate that the insurgents damaged the road to the extent of $100,000.

Governor Taft has received a dispatch that the threatened disturbances in Cienfuegos have been obviated by the withdrawal of the insurgents from that city.

the commission by the rebels in Pinar del Rio.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—It was announced at the White House this afternoon that the president had decided to adhere to his plan and send Charles F. Magoon to Cuba to relieve Secretary Taft as provisional governor.

It was stated late today that the president had reached his conclusion not to send Governor Magoon to Cuba, as announced early in the day, because of advice then in hand from Secretary Taft, intimating that the arrangement made for Governor Winthrop assuming the duties of the provisional governor had gone too far to be changed conveniently.

A later dispatch from the secretary, however, put the matter in a different light and indicated that the secretary was willing that the governor should remain in Porto Rico.

President Roosevelt, who has all along been anxious to have Magoon go to Cuba, acted promptly on the secretary's dispatch and immediately announced the appointment of Magoon.

This decision, he feels, leaves Governor Winthrop to finish important work in Porto Rico and will delay for but a few months Judge Magoon's departure for the Philippines.

Judge Magoon late today was informed that Secretary Taft wanted him to come to Havana at the earliest moment, and he will leave here Saturday, which will enable him to catch a steamer from Miami, Florida, due in Havana Tuesday.

General Bell, who has been ordered to Cuba, will accompany Magoon.

Tonight Magoon, Secretary and Mrs. Root and Rev. Dr. Peabody, of Groton, Mass., were guests at dinner at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—At the president's request, Franklin M. Bell, chief of staff, will proceed as soon as possible to Havana to consult with Secretary Taft as to the disposition of the American troops.

When General Bell returned to the war department, after his personal conference with the president, at which he received his orders to go to Cuba, he found on his desk a direction by the president that General Thomas H. Barry, assistant chief of staff, should be designated as acting chief of staff in General Bell's absence.

General Bell said he knew practically nothing of the reasons for his being ordered to Cuba, except that the president had received from Secretary Taft a request that he be ordered there.

While in Cuba, General Bell, by virtue of his rank, which is command of the American troops on the island.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Secretary Root has sent to the Cuban minister here, Senor Quesada, a copy of a cablegram which he received from Secretary Taft at Havana, in which he says he hopes Quesada will not think of resigning, that his services will be of the greatest value to Cuba in the present crisis.

Secretary Root adds for himself: "With hopeful courage and determination on the part of Cuba's real friends, all of this wretched business will soon be over."

The minister is preparing a letter in reply, undertaking to remain at least temporarily.

Quesada has consented to continue as minister and give whatever assistance he can, but the text of his letter could not be made public tonight.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—A section of the French press persists in expressing distrust of the intentions of the United States in Cuba, insinuating that the declarations to the effect that the United States will not hold the island belong to the same category as Great Britain's relations to the occupation of Egypt.

Le Eboe de Paris claims to know from an inside source that the United States intends to establish new relations with Cuba, by which they will engage in mutual free trade, shutting out the remainder of the world.

Dr. Ferrer, the Cuban representative here, has withdrawn his resignation at the request of Governor Taft.

Major Ladd will work tonight to carry out the disarming arrangements in the Cienfuegos district.

HUGHES AND HEARST STATE THEIR POSITIONS PLAINLY

Candidates For Governor of New York Accept The Nominations In Characteristic Fashion

REPUBLICAN LEADER, IN BRIEF SPEECH, SAYS THE ISSUE IS NOT OF REPUBLICAN OR DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES, BUT OF DECENT GOVERNMENT—HEARST, ACCEPTING INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE'S NOMINATION, SENT A LETTER, IN WHICH HE ASSAILS "BOSSISM" AND THREATENS TO REMOVE OFFICIALS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—With the declaration that the issue of interest in the forthcoming campaign in this state is not to be one of Republican principles or Democratic principles, or a particular issue at all, but the vital issue of decent government, Charles F. Hughes of this city tonight formally accepted the nomination for governor, which was brought to him by a committee from the Republican state convention, recently held at Saratoga.

The ceremonies of the notification of Hughes and of the other candidates was held at the Republican club in West Fortieth street, and followed a dinner at which Hughes met the members of the new Republican state central committee, who had been in session here today. Among the other guests at the dinner were former Governor Odell and former Governor Frank S. Black and they were among the first to congratulate Hughes at the close of his brief speech.

Hughes spoke as follows: "I am highly appreciating the honor you have conferred, and realizing keenly the responsibility to be assumed, I accept the nomination. As a lifelong Republican, as one loyal to the principles and best traditions of the party, I respond to the unanimous call of the convention."

"We enter upon the campaign inspired by the example and fortified by the achievements of our great leader, Theodore Roosevelt. The national administration with its record of established reforms, has strengthened its hold upon the confidence of the people. The activities of Congress in the interest of all the people, has been accelerated by the passage of the railroad rate act, the meat inspection act, the pure food act and the employers' liability act."

State Issues Chiefly. "In referring to this record of the federal administration, should not be understood to imply that this is a campaign of national issues. The paramount issue in this campaign are state issues. But in the matters I have mentioned, we find a notable record of achievement which puts a striking contrast to the noisy pretensions of the hour."

"Our state administration has also accomplished many genuine reforms. Here Hughes enumerated the reforms, with special reference to life insurance companies.

A Measure Opposed. "What do we find opposition to?" he asked. "A measure, an independence league, whose independence has been betrayed, and a so-called, but spurious, Democratic party which has violated every principle of democratic government."

"Vain is it for our opponents to parade in the ivory of virtue. Empty are their professions and hollow their declarations and promises."

"If you would know the sort of administration we should have in the event of their success look at the Buffalo convention; for here you will find their motives and their methods mirrored; their motive, selfishness, and their method, bossism."

Tests Which Tell. "We test the sincerity of their independence by their efforts to procure the Democratic nomination."

"We test the sincerity of their appeals to American ideals by their despotic proceedings."

"We test the sincerity of their attacks upon the question of money in politics by their use of money in politics."

"We test the sincerity of their devotion to the interests of the people by their efforts to foment disorder and exploit ignorance in the interests of self ambition."

The Supreme Issue. "What, then, is the supreme issue of this campaign? It is not an issue of the Republican record. It is not an issue of Republican principles or Democratic principles. It is not a partisan issue at all. It is the vital issue of decent government."

"The question is whether the unholy alliance that succeeded at Buffalo shall capture the state of New York. In my message to the convention I stated that if elected it would be my ambition to give the state a sane, efficient and honest administration, free from taint of bossism or of servitude to any private interest. This is my position in a nutshell."

Organization, But No Boss. "It will be an unbroken administration. I believe in party organization—in clean efficient organization. I promise all members of the party fair treatment and just consideration. No individual or group of individuals, and no private interest will be permitted to dictate my policy."

"I shall decide and act according to my conscience, and as I believe the public interest requires, I promise an honest administration. It will be my aim to make the administration of the government efficient as an economical. I am not committed to specific measures. I promise an examination, careful and impartial, of all matters within the scope of my authority, and such action as my honest judgment shall approve."

Promises Ring True. "Every practical measure for the real benefit of labor will have my cordial support. "I shall spare no effort to make effective the reforms in the business of life insurance in the interest of policy holders."

"I promise the enforcement of the law with equal severity and in equal justice to all rich and poor, corporations and individuals."

"We make one appeal to the common sense of the American people which has never failed to express itself decisively in a real crisis. We are pledged to achieve reforms in the American manner, in accordance with the genius of our institutions, and with love of truth and even-handed justice."

"It is in this spirit and with these pledges alone that I accept the nomination."

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Independence league, which nominated W. R. Hearst for governor, today received his letter accepting the nomination. In his letter he says:

"The great problem of the hour, the problem that the people must solve with their ballot and in legislation, is to do away with corporation control of the government. That control is now practically absolute. It rests mainly upon our system of partisan politics, directed by boss rule and subject to trust ownership."

To "Exterminate Bossism." "I accept your nomination with the full knowledge that the Independence league and its candidate for governor are pledged in honor to the extermination of bossism by putting into operation throughout our state the system of direct nominations and open primaries."

"The league has so aroused the people upon the fundamental issues of government by trusts or by citizens, that already they have called forth Democratic action by the masses of the Democratic party."

Corporation Lawyer Opponent. "You see a corporation lawyer put forward as the standard bearer of the Republican party in this campaign. You see corporation lawyers and violent partisans of monopolies held up to you as the only men fit to select your judges."

"The people know that their enemies are the originators and managers of oppressive trusts. They know that these trusts are in control of the machine of the Republican party in this state."

Financial Trusts Broken. "In regard to the violations of financial trust and the unbusiness repeatedly caused by relations of dishonesty in banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, such as the Merchants' Trust company, the German Bank of Buffalo and the New York Building and Loan association, there is no question that the public welfare demands drastic action."

"It is alarming that these instances of faithlessness and dishonesty should occur without effective opposition or rebuke from the banking department, if not with its connivance. I purpose, if elected, to remove Kilburne, reorganize the department and have it administered so as to carry out both the letter and the spirit of the law."

Incompetence Charged. "The corporations have juggled with the funds of insurance companies in open disregard for common honesty, contempt for the penal code and for the insurance law. There is incompetence in the state department created for the special purpose of detecting and preventing these crimes and the breaches of trust. I purpose, if elected, to remove the present incumbent and reorganize this important department."

Will Remove Officials. "I purpose, if elected, to exercise fearlessly, with due regard for the principle of homo rule, the power of removal given by the people to the governor. I purpose to end control by the corporations, not only in these state departments, but in the county offices charged with the enforcement of the original laws of the state. I purpose to put a premium upon the enforcement of the law instead of encouraging its violations by tolerating in office officials who grant immunity to powerful and influential offenders."

Reduce Terms of Office. "I advocate making the public official's term of office so short that he will not have time or inclination to forget who it is that elected him and that ought to control him. In particular, I favor undoing the mistake that lengthened the term of office of mayor of New York from two to four years, and I advocate a material shortening of the terms of office for all judges."

"An honest election law, an efficient corrupt practice act and especially a measure that will make it possible to have a judicial review of an election upon proof of fraud or mistake, much be enacted as part of that campaign against corporation domination upon which the people have entered so enthusiastically."

Public Ownership. "I stand for irrevocable hostility to the appropriation by congress of property belonging to the community. I shall continue to work for the enactment of a statute empowering cities to acquire and operate all public utilities at their option."

"Railroad rates must be reduced, and New York must be placed in line with other progressive states that are enforcing a maximum rate of 2 cents a mile to every railroad not especially chartered to carry a greater charge."

"I accept the nomination with the full knowledge that the Independence league and its candidate for governor are pledged in honor to the extermination of bossism by putting into operation throughout our state the system of direct nominations and open primaries."

"The league has so aroused the people upon the fundamental issues of government by trusts or by citizens, that already they have called forth Democratic action by the masses of the Democratic party."

Corporation Lawyer Opponent. "You see a corporation lawyer put forward as the standard bearer of the Republican party in this campaign. You see corporation lawyers and violent partisans of monopolies held up to you as the only men fit to select your judges."

"The people know that their enemies are the originators and managers of oppressive trusts. They know that these trusts are in control of the machine of the Republican party in this state."

CANADIAN PACIFIC TO BUILD NEW BRANCHES

Project to Reach North End of Vancouver Island Is Assuming Definite Shape.

SEATTLE, Oct. 3.—Canadian Pacific officials have projected railroad extensions in British Columbia and on Vancouver Island to connect at a new Vancouver Island port with the company's Oriental fleet.

The building of a new port on Barclay sound and the extension of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo railroad is expected to shorten the Oriental run twenty-four hours, but when the larger scheme of a railroad from northward from Vancouver, in British Columbia, crossing to Vancouver Island at Sechart narrows and running out to the northwesterly point of Vancouver island, is completed, mail and passengers can be landed in Vancouver thirty-six hours earlier than is now possible.

Details of the plan have not yet been fully worked out but Canadian Pacific engineers say the plan is entirely feasible. The railroad project along the shore line of British Columbia and on Vancouver island is no more serious than other lines the Canadian Pacific has built.

MOBILE IS CARING FOR THE DESTITUTE

Shelter for Those Whose Homes Were Wrecked Is the Most Pressing Necessity.

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 3.—Heavy rains along the lower part of the bay caused some interference today with relief work, but all things considered, the situation is well in hand and all of the destitute are being cared for. Contributions are pouring in steadily from the citizens of Mobile and from outside points. Shelter for those whose homes were wrecked is the thing most greatly needed, and it is becoming evident that many of those who lost everything must have aid soon. Governor Jelks today made a trip to Coden and vicinity to institute further measures of relief.

Several bodies have been floating in the lower bay, but they are believed to be those whose deaths have been reported previously.

Excitement continues high over the attack on the jail last night and the death of E. J. Hoyle at an early hour this morning.

Three companies of militia ordered here from Fort Deposit, Evergreen and Brewer today are stationed about the city. Governor Jelks said today that while he did not apprehend any more trouble right now, he considered it wise to hold the troops here for some days to guard against contingencies.

FOOTBALL SEASON BEGUN BY COLLEGES

Princeton Defeated Stephens and Harvard Scored Victory Over Bowdoin in First Games.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 3.—The Princeton football team defeated Stephens today in a loosely played game, 22 to 0. The forward pass and outside kick new rules were worked successfully at Princeton.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 3.—In a well played game of football Harvard defeated Bowdoin at Soldiers' Field this afternoon, 10 to 0. The first score was on a goal from the field by Burr from a place kick on the thirty-seven yard line. The second was made down the field to a touch down.

DES MOINES, Oct. 3.—United States Senator Beveridge opened the Republican campaign in Des Moines tonight with a speech that was heard by a large audience. Beveridge defended the Republican administration and congress and he also discussed the Cuban situation.

O'CONNOR IS OPTIMISTIC

Irish Leader Says Home Rule Is Certain.

American Friends of Emerald Isle Chose Officers and Heard Speeches.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—In anticipation of hearing a speech by T. P. O'Connor, M. P., the Irish leader, the hall in which the national convention of the United Irish League of America is being held was crowded early today. Michael J. Ryan of Philadelphia presided.

O'Connor reviewed the work being done in the British parliament in the cause of Irish home rule and predicted that "home rule would soon emerge from British rule and have her own home government."

Secretary O'Callaghan, in making a report as chairman of the ways and means committee, suggested that $50,000 be pledged within ten days to be sent by the national treasurer to the treasury of the ways and means committee in Ireland.

Both suggestions were put in the form of motions and unanimously carried amid great enthusiasm.

During the afternoon a number of resolutions were adopted, among which was one reaffirming the well known principles of the league toward home rule in Ireland and pledging its members to continue to strive, as they had in the past, to bring about better conditions in that country.

ALL VOTES MUST BE COUNTED

President Roosevelt Urges Fair Play in Taking Arizona's Decision on Statehood.

GOVERNOR KIBBEY RECEIVED A LETTER

Representatives of Each Side Must Be Present When the Vote is Counted, to Set at Rest Talk About Unfairness.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 3.—Governor Kibbey has received the following letter from President Roosevelt: "My Dear Governor Kibbey: I am sorry to say that grave charges have been made to me that under the organization of which you are the active leader, there will not be a fair count of the votes on the question of statehood."

"If these charges were well founded I need not say to you that it would be a national disaster. I have no doubt there is no truth in them, but some prominent people in the United States do believe them, and they are joined in this belief by some of the most prominent people of Arizona and New Mexico."

"Therefore, to avoid all criticism, I direct that if you can in any way arrange it, you have representatives of the statehood people present at the canvassing of the votes on statehood. I have sent a copy of this letter to G. V. Hagerman and directed him to make the same arrangements—that is, have representatives from both the statehood and anti-statehood parties present to witness the count of the votes."

Governor Kibbey immediately sent a copy of this letter to Thomas F. Wilson, of Tucson, president of the Joint Statehood League, and wrote him that inasmuch as no statehood party has filed the name of a candidate with the territorial secretary, he requests Wilson to furnish names of statehood advocates to serve on election day and witness the count in each precinct.

Arizona has the Australian ballot, and never before, even in bitter contests between Republicans and Democrats, has the prediction of probable corruption been made.

It is suggested here by opponents of joint statehood that the jointists seek, first, the removal of Governor Kibbey, and second, a basis for establishing charges of corruption when the small vote which they anticipate for jointism, is returned.

STATE GRANGE HAD THREE BUSY SESSIONS

San Jose Grange Favors Going Slow In the Matter of Japanese Exclusion.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 3.—The state grange held three sessions today. The morning was devoted to bearing reports and the introduction of resolutions. This afternoon, Mrs. Harvey Gregory conducted a "woman's hour," and a number of papers and addresses were heard.

State Lecturer J. W. Webb, of Modesto led an hour's program devoted to the discussion of a number of grange matters.

Tonight a memorial service was held and eulogies pronounced upon Past Master William Johnson of Sacramento and former Senator E. C. Hinshaw.

A memorial was received from the Oregon state grange asking the national grange to inquire into the excessive rates of railroads for carrying mail.

A resolution was received from San Jose grange, desiring representation in congress not to favor too sweeping legislation regarding Japanese exclusion on account of a scarcity of labor. All resolutions were referred to committees.

TO CALL ELECTION TO CHOOSE SUCCESSOR IN GILLETTS PLACE

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 3.—Congressman James N. Gillett, Republican candidate for governor, today telephoned to Governor Pardee from Chico that he had written his resignation as congressman of the First district and forwarded the same to this city. Gov. Pardee will issue a proclamation tomorrow, calling an election for the purpose of electing a congressman for the unexpired term.

Brakeman Cut in Two. A brakeman on an eastbound extra freight train, was instantly killed at a switch near Troy station, this county, this morning. He was attempting to get off the pilot, fell under the engine and was cut in two.

JURY FAILS TO AGREE

Case of Jap Charged With Interfering With Police.

Decision Hinges Upon Veracity of Officers Against the Japs.

Before a jury in Judge Briggs' court yesterday afternoon the case of T. Tami, charged with disturbing the peace, was heard and resulted in a disagreement of the jury.

Tami is the Japanese who was arrested about one week ago on a charge of interfering with the discharge of an officer's duty. Policemen Drenth was about to arrest another Jap for being drunk and a number of the man's friends gathered around in a concerted effort to release the prisoner. Another Jap, named K. Timota, was mixed up in the affair at the time but his trial will not be heard for a few days. When Officer Drenth found himself in danger of losing his prisoner, he beat off the other Japs and Policemen Bradley came upon the scene. One or two of the little men got a few heavy blows but they clung on to the officers and did all possible to get them down. Finding, after a few strenuous minutes, that their justice tactics did not work on the policemen the fellows took to their heels, but before Tami and Timota were arrested.

On the stand yesterday the Japs told their troubles in detail. They were only standing talking quietly to each other they averred when the officer came along and began to beat them for nothing at all. They might have protested quietly to the arrest, but did not remember doing so.

Officers Drenth and Bradley told of the interference in the execution of their duty by the accused men with others and said that they were obliged to strike the Japs to avoid being overpowered or losing their prisoner. Both officers stated that every Jap arrested resists the officer and puts up a fight. Deputy District Attorney Barbour for the prosecution, in addressing the jury, pointed out that the matter hinged upon a decision of veracity between the Japs and the police. The story, he said, told by the Japs about the police attacking them and beating them for nothing at all, was too preposterous to consider. If the police really did brutally attack a few peaceable Japs upon no provocation whatever, then the prosecution was perfectly willing to drop the charges and institute ones of perjury against the policemen. But the accounts given by the police and the Japs could not be both true. Some one was lying, and it was to decide, which side was doing the false testifying that the jury had been convened. On the face of it, concluded Mr. Barbour, the evidence showed that the policemen were simply doing their duty when the Japs interfered, and a verdict of guilty seemed to be the only thing to fit the ends of justice.

For the defense, Attorney E. A. Williams stated that his client was not technically guilty. He had deep respect for both Officers Drenth and Bradley but it seemed to him that their evidence was mistaken, and that they had overreached themselves in their zeal. Policemen Bradley a powerful man, weighing 240 pounds, pitted against the Jap who weighed something like 115 pounds did really not seem an evenly matched pair and the little man was not certainly able to do much damage to the two burly officers. If, remarked Mr. Williams, a certain amount of protest and charge accompanies every arrest, every prisoner except those who are too drunk to know what is happening, is guilty of disturbing the peace like what happened in the case of the defendant.

After remaining out for one hour the jury reported a disagreement on the verdict. The following were the jurors: A. M. Bradley, H. F. Martin, M. F. Reines, J. D. Briggs, Geo. Bernard, C. Barr, J. P. Lane, J. O. Lowery, G. R. G. Glenn, M. A. Poole, C. Grandall and E. J. Draper.

Then Disturbed the Peace. John J. Jackson a rancher got a little topheavy yesterday morning after visiting half the saloons in town and engaged in an argument with a railroad man named Deross. The two were fighting on the street when Officer Aubrey came along and arrested the pair. The guilt seemed to rest principally upon Jackson and he will come in for the lion's share of the judicial medicine meted out in Judge Briggs' court this morning.

Inflamed with drink and prowling around seeking trouble, William Kelly stirred up a disturbance in a noodle joint yesterday and was arrested by Officer Goehring. He did not come up for trial yesterday as the judge decided to let him cool off a little first.

Sam Jeff Jones, the Indian who imagined that he was transformed into a dog, after drinking a quart of whiskey, appeared in court and had no more bark or bites. He said that he was sorry and made gilt-edged pleas for forgiveness. The court handed him out the choice of $5 or as many days he paid the fine.

Jack McDonald, arrested by Officer Machen, did not come up for trial before yesterday's police court, his case being postponed to obtain further testimony.

Hobo Apprentices.
George Harris and Roy Ford, two youthful hobo apprentices, faced yesterday's charges yesterday and were driven out of town with suspended sentences. The two lads were picked from the Owl on Tuesday night just as they were about to alight and make their way up town. Judge Briggs gave them a lecture on the evils of idleness and pointed out that there was plenty of work to be had for the mere effort of asking. He told them to leave town.

A Schwartz indignantly denied being a vagrant. He was arrested by the policeman Fair and will be held in the county jail until his record is looked into.

Violate City Ordinances.
For running their automobiles without lights, a warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of C. R. Schaffer and an unknown man who runs auto No. 4773.

Another man named Daulton was released with a caution for the same offense.

E. A. Parker paid a fine of $3 for violating the hitching ordinance.

GREENE WOULD IF HE COULD

Do Things for His District in Congress.

"I Would Work and Vote for" Various Things—But Would He Get Them?

Editor Republican:—My attention has just been called to the fact that in a recent issue of your paper you made an inquiry as to what I would do if I were chosen at the forthcoming election to represent the sixth district of the state of California in the house of representatives of the United States congress, and in reply to that inquiry I desire to say that I would do all I could to do among many others the things hereinafter enumerated, to-wit:

1. I would do my duty in all things as I saw fit.

2nd. I would be honest and industrious, and untrammelled by boss or "stand pat" (right or wrong) rule.

3rd. I would work and vote to relieve California from the effects of the San Francisco disaster and to rebuild that city by a suspension for a time of the tariff schedules on trust-controlled building material, as should have been done by the last congress.

4th. I would work and vote for a suitable law governing oil and land locations to protect the legitimate position of owners of adjoining claims.

5th. I would work and vote for an appropriation for a harbor breakwater at Monterey, hoping thereby to hasten a cross-state railroad thence to the San Joaquin valley.

6th. I would heartily join with the Democratic or Republican or other forces to "Lawsoneize" the trust dominated "system" now in power in this country.

7th. I would not hesitate to follow the leadership of Roosevelt and the Republicans when they were right, nor to fight them when they were wrong. I further feel that my familiarity with Washington and my standing as a business man here and also there, would make me an efficient congressman and I am sure that my natural inclination would make me a trustworthy one. ## ATTENDANCE ABOUT 1000

Judges Begin Awards at Hanford Show.

Four Running Races Furnished the Attraction for Visitors.

HANFORD, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the Central California fair today was estimated at 1000, which falls somewhat below the corresponding day of last year.

The judges commenced their work today by awarding the premiums in the poultry house, and in the balcony of the pavilion. Judging of live stock will commence tomorrow. Arrangements having been completed with a high diver, his first performance will be given Friday forenoon.

The day's events on the track were all running races, commencing promptly with the regular officers in charge. The races will contain several tomorrow's races, then being a ladies' race at a 2:30 pace. Today's events were as follows: First race, 3/4-mile dash for a purse of $50. Brondale first, Dinuba second, Jack Richelle third. Time, 1:07 1/2. Second race, 1 1/10 miles, run for a purse of $200. Laura F. M. first, Mary Dunn second, Orchan third. Time, 1:51 1/2. This was one of the prettiest races ever run on the track the finish being excitingly close. Third race, 3/4-mile dash, for a purse of $125. Jack Richelle first, Pinewood second. Fourth race, 3/4-mile dash, for a purse of $150. Crigh first, Light Braid second. Time, 1:32 1/2.

About forty excursionists from Los Angeles arrived in Hanford this forenoon, taking advantage of the special rate offered by the Southern Pacific management on account of the Central California fair.

The Twentieth Century club met at their usual meeting place this forenoon in the first meeting of the year.

W. W. Glimes, formerly Southern Pacific agent in Hanford, is visiting friends in this city.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 3.—At the session today of the general assembly of California Congregational churches, Sacramento was chosen as the convention city for 1907. A fellowship meeting will be held in Reno Nevada, next year. There were addresses today by ministers from San Francisco and Berkeley.

REV. PECK PROMOTED

Is Now Presiding Elder of this District.

Dr. L. E. Bockwell Is Expected to Arrive in Fresno By Tomorrow.

Rev. Harcourt W. Peck, but lately resigned from the pastorate of the First Methodist church in this city, has been honored by the State conference of the Methodist Episcopal church with the appointment to the position of presiding elder of the Fresno district. In this, he succeeds Dr. J. D. Green, who was appointed by the conference, which met at Riverside a few days ago, to be field secretary of the Conference Claimants Endowment fund. The pastors of the churches in the Fresno district showed their appreciation of the work of Dr. Green during his term as presiding elder by presenting him with a handsome tea service and accompanied it with a $10 gold piece with which to buy the tea.

The district over which Rev. Peck has been promoted to preside as elder extends from Fresno county on the north to Kern and Santa Barbara on the south, and the position is considered to be one of considerable responsibility as well as of dignity. Mr. Peck's admirers in the Fresno congregation are rejoicing over the opportunity this gives him to keep in touch with the Fresno church.

It has been announced that Rev. Peck's successor, Dr. L. E. Bockwell, recently of Eugene, Oregon, will arrive in this city tomorrow, and will commence his active pastorate on the following Sunday. He comes highly recommended by the conference as an able lecturer and a man of pleasing personality, who has enjoyed the greatest success in his previous fields of work. The church at Eugene had a congregation of 320 members.

THIEF RIFLES BALL PLAYERS' CLOTHES

Rein Eaters Planning Punishment for Misconduct.

During yesterday afternoon's game at Recreation Park some one rifled the clothes of the Fresno baseball players in the training quarters and got away with $12 of "dashwords" and $5 of Ed McLaughlin's money. The boys usually take their valuables to the baseball grounds with them in a grip sack, but these two players left their money in their clothes yesterday.

The park authorities have some one under suspicion and when they catch the thief it will not go easy with him. Mike Fisher says that he will not be allowed to get to the jail. He will be taken to the baseball grounds and placed on the home plate for the pitchers to throw at and then used for a batting target.

DEATH OF FORMER FRESNO ATTORNEY

George E. Colwell Was Editor of Old "Democrat."

Word was received in this city yesterday of the death a few days ago in Los Angeles of George Edwin Colwell. The deceased was formerly a resident of this city, having been at one time a deputy district attorney and later editor of the old Democrat, a daily paper published in this city in the eighties.

Mr. Colwell, who has made his home in Los Angeles for the last three or four years, had suffered from ill health for many years before his death and had to give up his law practice on that account. He leaves a wife and several children. He was born in Ohio and was about 45 years of age.

Mr. Colwell acted as a deputy for about a year under Reel B. Terry in the district attorney's office and was succeeded in 1888 by H. H. Walsh. He then became associated with Louis B. McWhirter in the publication of the Democrat. About 1890, he left Fresno to make his home in Napa, where he engaged in the practice of law, and was also for awhile engaged in newspaper work. His health failing, he removed to Oakes, then to Fresno about 1902 and finally made his home in Los Angeles. His brother, J. O. Colwell of Los Angeles, was formerly in business in this city in the manufacture and sale of extracts.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

Every old sore exists because of a polluted condition of the blood. This vital fluid is infected with some germ or old taint, or perhaps has been left in an unhealthy condition from a long spell of sickness, or the trouble may be inherited. The poisonous germs and matter with which the blood is saturated force an outlet on the face, arms, legs or other part of the body and form a sore or ulcer. This being continually fed by a polluted blood supply, grows red and angry, festers and eats into the surrounding flesh until it becomes what is very aptly termed an "old sore." The relief produced by external treatment is only temporary. The only treatment that can do any real good is a blood purifier that goes to the very root of the trouble and removes the cause, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. It drives out from the circulation all morbid matter and germs, even reaching down to hereditary taints, and by cleansing the blood heals old sores permanently. S. S. S. not only removes all taints and poisons from the blood but builds it up by supplying it with the rich, health-sustaining properties it needs to keep the system in health. S. S. S. makes pure blood and a sore must heal if the blood is pure and healthy. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

CITY MUST SOLVE GRAVE FLOOD WATER PROBLEM

Mayor Lyon Calls Hurred Meeting of Citizens to Consider Danger from Dry Creek Should Clovis Prevent Spreading of the Water—Committee Appointed to Determine Question of Responsibility—Frank Short's Letter.

A conference held between Mayor Lyon and Manager W. E. G. Saunders of the Fresno Canal and Irrigation company yesterday morning resulted in a hurry-up call for a special meeting of citizens of Fresno and Clovis, together with officers of the city and the canal company, to consider what has come to be regarded as a very serious problem facing the city, that of protection from the flood waters of the creeks that flow toward Fresno from the northwest.

The net result of the meeting, which was held at the Chamber of Commerce building at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon, was that the following general committee, to consider the question as to responsibility for the compounding of the waters of Dry creek. It was agreed by everyone present that urgent measures must be taken before the flood season, and the quicker the responsibility of handling the water is determined, the better it will be for all concerned. The general committee is as follows:

Chairman, Fulton G. Berry; R. E. L. Cobb, E. E. L. Good and R. M. Behrmer, From Clovis; Charles Tesague and C. A. Puckhaber, for the Fresno business men, Supervisor Beall of the second district, which includes the creek country; District Attorney Jones; W. E. G. Saunders for the canal company; and City Attorney Ewing, City Engineer Hoxie and City Trustee Statham.

It was 10 o'clock in the forenoon when it was determined to have a meeting, and they a hurry-up call was sent out to Clovis to secure, if possible, the attendance of citizens from that place. Through the efforts of R. E. L. Cobb, the following arrived from Clovis in time for the meeting: H. M. Behrmer, Charles A. Puckhaber, M. A. Atkinson, Bruce Shute, T. E. McKelvey, R. E. L. Good and R. E. L. Cobb. Others present at the gathering were Mayor Lyon, City Trustee Myers and Statham, Manager Saunders of the canal company, City Attorney Ewing, City Engineer Hoxie, Fulton G. Berry, H. Radin, C. R. Puckhaber, P. E. Cook and Supervisor Beall.

The mayor called the meeting to order, and explained the object of the meeting to consider what would be the next course to pursue with regard to the disposal of the flood waters that endanger this city every winter. He explained that the residents of Clovis have determined upon a united action to prevent any further flooding of that town, and the action they propose to take, that of damming in the waters of Dry creek, will necessarily increase the amount of water that endangers Fresno every winter.

The attitude that is taken with regard to the responsibility of the canal company, was fully explained in the following lengthy letter from Attorney Frank H. Short, who represents the corporation, which was read by Mayor Lyon:

Mr. Short's Statement.

September 17th, 1906.
The Honorable Mayor and Board of Trustees of the City of Fresno.

Gentlemen:—Since my communication to you of some days ago concerning the protection of this city from overflow, I have noticed that it has been suggested that there may be some conflict of interests between the city and the canal company, and that the canal company in some way ought to be held responsible for the protection of the city from overflow. I think these suggestions arise entirely from a misunderstanding of the facts and circumstances, and I do not see how any substantial conflict of interest or otherwise could arise between the city and the canal company and I think any view to the contrary arises, as stated, out of a misunderstanding of the facts.

In the first place this city is subject to overflow or liable to be overflowed from the waters of Dry creek, Fancher creek and Dog creek, and Red Banks. Dry creek probably carrying considerably more water than all of the others and Fancher creek being much larger than Dog creek or Red Banks. The proposed additional works for the protection of the city against overflow are that the waters of Dry creek shall be carried into the Dog creek channel and thence the waters of both creeks after flowing for some miles in Dry creek shall be turned into the San Joaquin river above the point where they would naturally reach that stream. I understand it, it is not proposed to divert the waters of Fancher creek, or Red Banks, but to allow their waters to be taken care of by the canals, as at present.

The Early Floods.
Between 1884 and 1900 there were a number of years of exceptionally heavy rains and we had several floods in the city of Fresno. The canals at that time were not as large as they are now and the embankments were much weaker and the flood waters from the creeks referred to broke over such embankments and obstructions as existed and flowed continuously through their natural channels and drainways to and through the city of Fresno. I have myself seen flowing through the city three or four times as much water as the entire capacity of the Fresno canals and at that time the water appeared to be, and undoubtedly was, flowing in its natural channels. In view of these conditions, the city entered into an arrangement whereby it paid to the canal company $1500.00 for the definite enlargement of the canal running east and west north of the Barton place, the canal under the arrangement between the company and the city to be enlarged to certain definite dimensions and upon the completion of this work the canal company was to receive, and I understand did receive, the $1500.00.

A copy of the memorandum expressing the arrangement between the city and the canal company is handed to you with this letter and from this you will observe that the undertaking and arrangement between the city and the canal company seemed to begin and end with the enlargement of the canal referred to in the dimensions agreed upon. Notwithstanding this, the city, without objection from the canal company, has had the advantage of the use of not only this canal, which is now much larger than called for by the agreement, but of all other available canals and the canal company has spent a great deal of money in keeping its canals and their embankments in repair and while the city has from time to time during floods, with the permission of the canal company, done additional work upon the banks of the canals to keep the floods out of the city, the canal company has from time to time been at considerable expense in repairing injury and damage done to the canals by these flood waters.

Company Received Only $1500.

I was not the attorney, either for the city or the canal company, at the time these transactions were carried through, and my knowledge of them consists in such information as I have been able to obtain from others and from examining the available data, including the memorandum referred to. I had been of the impression that the city had paid more to the canal company than the $1500.00 referred to. It appears, however, that such additional money as was spent by the city for protection from flood did not go to the canal company at all, and I think it can safely be assumed that no full-minded person would claim that because the canal company at the instance of the city enlarged one of its canals to definite dimensions for which it received $1500.00 that it thereby, or under any other circumstances or for any other reasons, became obligated to take care of all such future floods as might happen to endanger the city. In fact, the memorandum and all of the attendant facts and circumstances prove exactly the contrary. The considerations and benefits which the canal company had received have never been in any respect proportionate to the trouble and expense that has been involved in allowing its canals to be used for the protection of the city and adjacent country from overflow. I assume that no one with knowledge of the facts would claim that the canal company is or could be claimed to be under any obligation to carry any more water through its canals than they are capable of carrying and this privilege has always been allowed, and so far as I understand the situation it is intended to allow the city to enjoy this privilege so far as the canals are available whether the city is legally entitled to the same or not.

If the city refused to do anything, the most that the canal company could do would be to protect its canals that they would carry their full present capacity and if overflow was unavoidable by reason of the coming of waters greater than the capacity of the canals to so construct them that the overflow would occur where the water would naturally flow in the absence of any canals at all, and this being in accordance with the natural condition of things, no one could complain. The city, since the transaction referred to, has had, and now has, the advantage of the use of canals and canals that would have cost to construct upwards of $50,000.00, referring only to the portions available and used for the protection of the city from overflow, and it is not now proposed, as I understand, to in any manner interfere with the use of these canals as storm channels to carry off flood waters as they have been accustomed to do.

The Situation Simply Is That the Existing Canals and Canals are Inadequate for such floods as are likely to occur, and it is proposed to provide additional channels and additional facilities to carry off such excessive floods whenever they come. In the event of the construction of these storm channels and the occurrence of such exceptional floods in the future, the storm channels would take care of the waters of Dry creek and Dog creek and doubtless the existing canals would be sufficient to safely take care of the waters of Fancher creek and Red Banks if the other streams were withdrawn. The uniform practice of the canal company in the event of such floods or freshets is to close down the head of its canals at the river and leave their entire capacity available for storm waters, and the facts and circumstances considered, I do not think that any person would claim, either in a legal or equitable way, that the canal company could possibly be expected to do more than this, and it is not proposing to withdraw or take away from the city any present existing right or advantage or privilege, whether the same be legal or other right.

What I am, therefore, suggesting is, as a citizen of the town interested in, and greater facilities for taking care of the storm water and preventing the flooding of the city is necessary and required and that by no possibility can these be obtained in any other way except by the action of the city.

As the boy said to the preacher, this would seem to be a ground hog case. Neither the canal company nor the users of water have any interest in, nor can they obtain any advantage from, these exceptional floods. Neither are they under any legal or moral obligation to take care of the same. The only possible result, therefore, of inaction on the part of the city and county will be that the conditions must remain as they are, and if they do, it is inevitable that when the first freshet or flood comes that is in excess of the carrying capacity of the canals, the city will be flooded, and, of course, if the canal embankments are broken down and carried away the entire flood will come into the city and great damage will result.

By Courtesy of Company.

The canal company is now, and always has been, willing that the city shall receive all of the benefit and advantage that can be obtained from the use of the existing canals, and it cannot be denied that this is largely a matter of courtesy and privilege, but being one that the canal company has for many years accorded to the city, and its owners being interested in the city as well as in the canals naturally desire that the two shall co-operate and that each shall be of all possible benefit to the other. Further than this, no reasonable person can ask the company to go, and, of course, it could not go further than this with respect to the rights of its stockholders and those who use water from the canals.

I have no disposition to unduly urge or press this matter upon the city. I have simply called it to your attention, as any interested citizen might do and you are as much interested, and some of you doubtless more interested personally, in the matter than I am. For my part, however, I am hopeful that some definite action will be taken, but no matter to entirely within your judgment and discretion and if a bond issue should be called for, would then be entirely within the judgment and discretion of the property owners of the city of Fresno.

Respectfully,

FRANK H. SHORT.

Following the reading of the letter, there was some general discussion. City Attorney Ewing declared that he considered that the question of responsibility had not yet been properly gone into and that the city should not be forced to the expense of diverting the water into the San Joaquin river. The mayor brought up the matter of the danger of suits against the city in case the pouring of this water into the river should so raise the level as to endanger any bottom land property.

Mr. Saunders stated that all the company wants is to have the matter settled once and for all, so that there may be no question as to who is responsible.

After further discussion, on motion of Mr. Berry, the mayor was authorized to appoint a committee to secure further legal advice regarding this question. This was done, and after an agreement that the committee should be called together by City Attorney Ewing in a week or two, the meeting adjourned.

FLEES WITH HIS CHILD

Watson Leaves Visalia Under Battery Charge.

Mount Whitney Power Company's New Steam Plant Is Completed.

VISALIA, Oct. 3.—Another chapter was added to the J. H. Watson case when the paterfamilias had rescued possession of his child, today the early Santa Fe train this morning and departed with it to Illinois, in which state his parents reside and with whom the infant will be placed to be reared. The Watsons have been in the police court on two different occasions lately, once when Mrs. Watson attempted to obtain the babe when first abducted by its father, and recently when she swore to a warrant charging him with battery. Watson asked for a similar charge against his wife, exhibiting a broken nose, but this was refused. Day before yesterday Justice Chack agreed to a dismissal of his $500 bail bond pending his trial for battery and he was released on his own recognizance.

When Watson appeared to purchase his ticket he was accompanied by two men, having been rumored that Mrs. Watson would employ assistance to recover the child. At the same time, the former showed a letter which he intended mailing to his wife in which he stated that if she cared to see the child before his departure, she might do so at the depot. She did not put in an appearance, however.

The test of the Mt. Whitney Power company's new steam plant was made today by Engineer A. M. Hunt of San Francisco. The plant has just been completed, everything being in place. The test was highly satisfactory. Mr. Hunt of the firm of Hunt, Mirk & Co. consulting engineers, is one of the most prominent engineers in the West, having been in charge of the construction of the Claus Spreckels independent plant and others in San Francisco.

The Mt. Whitney plant has a capacity of 2000 horse-power maximum, being about equal to either of the power plants in the hills, and is capable of taking the place of either in case of emergency. It was constructed at a cost of many thousands of dollars.

L. Gruyert of Berkeley and formerly of this city, has purchased a half interest in the Pleasant View lodging house on Main street from Mrs. Della Bailey. The price paid is not stated.

At a meeting of the directors of the Bank of Visalia the following officers have been elected: President, C. M. Smith; vice president, C. J. Giddings; cashier, L. C. Hyde; assistant cashier, L. Lawrence.

The funeral of V. W. Powell, a well-known Exeter merchant, who succumbed last night after a short illness with typhoid fever, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late residence, the interment being in the Exeter cemetery. Mr. Powell leaves a wife, a child and several other relatives. He was 57 years of age. He was a member of the Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, and Woodmen of the World, in which latter order he carried insurance.

Mrs. J. G. Knox has gone to Fresno to attend the session of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mrs. S. Mitchell returned this morning from an outing in the southern part of the state.

UNION MATTERS.

Millmen Initiate Six New Members and Plan Dance.

Last night's regular meeting of the union Millmen was taken up with the initiation of a number of candidates and the discussion of various business matters of moment. After the meeting was closed, several candidates presented themselves and the meeting was reopened with a quorum of those present. The members admitted were Mill, Maud, F. Bingham, Lloyd Bingham, Stuart Evans, Lloyd Miller and Arthur Beluga. Besides these there were four applications and several names of prospective candidates handed in.

The order is planning for a big dance and social to be held at a date in the near future.

The union butchers initiated three members at their meeting. The reports of the branch show that the members are in an excellent condition in every way. There are no members out of employment, while work awaits good many more union men who desire to come to this city.

THE FRESNO MORNING REPUBLICAN

PUBLISHED BY
Fresno Republican Publishing Co.

CHESTER H. ROWELL, Editor and Manager

HE WOULD—IF HE COULD.

Harry A. Greene, Democratic candidate for congress for this district, writes to the Republican giving several plausible Republican and Independent reasons why he would like to be a Democratic member of congress. These reasons as he numbers them are seven. Practically they are three. (1) Mr. Greene would be honest; (2) he would support Roosevelt and the Republican reformers; and (3) he would "vote and work for" certain specific measures, namely: Suspension of tariff on San Francisco building material; a better oil land location law; and a Monterey breakwater.

All of which is very pleasing, but not to any practical point. Nobody doubts that Mr. Greene is honest. Presumably he does not question that Representative Needham is also honest. Mr. Greene's loyalty to Roosevelt Republicanism is also commendable, but would it better on an aspirant to the Republican nomination. As to the specific measures, Mr. Greene would doubtless "work for," but he would have no chance to "vote for" his Monterey breakwater, simply because he would not have the influence to bring it to a vote. When that breakwater can be had at all, Needham can get it. His ability to "get things" is already a demonstrated fact, and his influence with the powers that give out such things is far greater than anybody else could possibly acquire, except by the same process by which, in the course of years, he has acquired it. Mr. Needham has already rendered invaluable services in improving the oil location laws, and if Mr. Greene has any suggestions for their further improvement, he will accomplish far more by writing out his bill, and getting Needham to pass it, than he could by going to congress with it himself and not getting it passed. As to the project to admit building materials free to San Francisco, Congressman Needham is the only representative from California who has or can get any direct power at all. The bill can not get before congress until it first passes Needham's committee, and it cannot get out of that committee until the Democratic members thereof abandon their policy of using it as a lever to open the way to an assault on the whole protective tariff system. As a member of the anti-protective party, Mr. Greene would either have to join in that assault, and thereby assist in the obstruction to the measure he now advocates, or else repudiate it and his party, in which case he would be a Republican. And if we are going to have a Republican, it is better to have an experienced one, of established position.

Mr. Greene does not and can not meet the fundamental dilemma that he is appealing to a protectionist district to elect him as an anti-protective representative. Even conceding that there may be arguments against a protective tariff, this district is not the place to make them. Everybody in this district wants a protective tariff, and every Democratic candidate for congress from this district has been obliged to apologize for the anti-protective tariff plank in his party platform. Mr. Greene does not even apologize. Apparently he has not found out yet that the dilemma exists. But the people know it, and they will not listen in patience to any attempt to evade the argument. They will demand (though they know they can not get) a definite answer to these questions:

(1) Does the Democratic party favor a protective tariff?

(2) Do you favor a protective tariff?

(3) How would you, as a member of the anti-protective party, secure and retain the protection which your district demands?

R. S. V. P.

DEMOCRATIC TEXT BOOK.

It is a striking coincidence that the Republican and Democratic campaign text books both consist of a discussion of the same subject—the achievements of the Republican party. There is, in fact, nothing else to discuss. The whole political history of America, for more than a generation, consists of the policies and accomplishments of the Republican party, and the only possible issue is whether these policies and accomplishments are good or bad. There can be no comparison of the accomplishments of other parties, for there are none. There can scarcely be even a comparison of academic theories, since the Democratic party now agrees with the Republicans on nearly all points of past difference, and has very few tangible points of present difference. The sum of the whole claim of Democracy is that part of the accomplishments of Republicanism are not good, and that the rest are as much Democratic as Republican, since Democrats agreed to them. Only on the protective tariff is there any serious issue. The campaign book disputes the assertion that there have always been good times under Republican tariffs, and always bad times under Democratic tariffs, and points out in a general way that protective tariff is robbery. But what the Democrats would do about that tariff, if they had the chance, is nowhere stated, for the very good reason that nobody knows.

The most striking portion of the book is its abuse of President Roosevelt. The president, whose services to the cause of labor have surpassed those of any public man in this generation, is accused of regarding laboring men as a lazy, selfish, brutal, violent mob. The executive who has accomplished more practical results in the curbing of corporate abuses than all his predecessors and contemporaries combined is branded as a corruption partisan. The president is charged with incapacity, lawlessness and corruption subversion. Surely some midsummer madness must have overwhelmed the makers of this book! The practical Democratic politicians on the stump, more sane, are all posing as Roosevelt disciples.

TAFT'S REWARD.

If Taft succeeds in getting rid of Cuba, he may have America for his reward. In other words, if he can administer himself out of the governorship of Cuba, he will thereby have administered himself into the presidency of the United States. The one thing the American people want, in Cuba, is to do their full duty there, and then get out. With soldiers enough, anybody can restore order, and maintain it as long as he can retain the soldiers. That may be the best that can be done with Cuba but the American people hope not, and they have faith that Taft is the man to find a better way, if there is one. He has made a good beginning. He has secured the confidence of the Cubans of all classes; he has disbanded the old government without friction; he is disarming the insurgents without force; and may succeed in establishing a new government without dependence. He has shown high qualities of self-control, tactfulness, conservatism and courtesy, and at the same time the courage of instant and decisive action in a crisis. He has mediated between Anglo-Saxon and Latin civilizations so that both could understand him, because he understood both. If revolution, protectorate, restoration and independence can be accomplished in peace, he is the man to do it. There would be no discredit in failure, against such odds, but there will be great glory in success. And there will be great reward—no less than the nomination, by common consent, of Judge Taft of Ohio, Governor Taft of the Philippines, Secretary Taft of Washington, Overseer Taft of Panama, and Dictator Taft of Cuba, as president of the United States of America.

MAY AGAIN NATURALIZE.

The county clerk's office yesterday received from Washington the federal permission to resume naturalization proceedings together with the necessary blank forms.

Probate Matters.

An inventory and appraisement of the estate of George E. Taekaberry shows real estate worth $6000 and personal property estimated at $335, mostly farming tools. The lots are located in the Orangedale tract. Eugene E. Taekaberry petitioned yesterday for permission to sell the personal property, which was granted.

The request of Ethel Irene Stutzman to have her father, Dr. L. Stutzman, appointed the guardian of her estate, was filed. There is a younger sister, Ruth Elizaeth.

Democratic Meetings.

A number of meetings have been arranged by the Democratic County Central committee for the coming week. Tomorrow evening, George W. Cortwright, candidate for state senator, and the various county candidates, will speak at the West Park school house. On Saturday evening they will be at the town hall of Fowler. Next week there will be speaking at Riverside on Wednesday, at Jaton on Thursday, and at Kingsburg on Saturday. A big meeting will be held at Selma on the 16th.

MAESTRETTI RESIGNED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Frank Maestretti, president of the board of public works, resigned today. Thomas Egan was elected by the board to succeed Maestretti as president. Maestretti continues a member of the board.

HIGH COURT FORESTERS

ELECTED NEW OFFICERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—At the session of the high court of the Independent Order of Foresters today, the principal business transacted was the election of high officers for the coming term. Those chosen are: J. P. Murphy, San Francisco, high chief ranger; J. P. Nash, San Mateo, vice chief ranger; J. B. Knudson, treasurer; O. K. Brown, secretary; O. B. Parkinson, counselor; Dr. W. E. Stephens, physician; A. O. Matthews and William Stuart, auditors; C. H. Hopkins, past high chief ranger.

ARMY TRANSPORT

AT MANILA DOCK

IS IN FLAMES

MANILA, Oct. 3.—The transport Thomas is on fire. The fire originated in the hold, where there are 6500 bags of hay. The flames have spread to the bunkers. The hold of the vessel has been flooded. It is thought that the only hope of saving the vessel is in sinking her. The water at her dock is shallow.

CHANGE TO
HELP BEALLAcademy Votes Wanted in Clovio Election.

Corbeley Protests Against Alterations in Boundaries of Judicial Districts.

A fight is to be put up, against the proposed alteration in the boundaries of the tenth judicial district to permit of the transfer of the Big Dry Creek precinct to the second district which includes the town of Clovis. When the petition for the change was filed with the Board of Supervisors day before yesterday and hearing was set for October 5th, Justice L. S. Beall of Clovis, one of the candidates for justice in the second precinct, and others who appeared in support of the petition, stated that there was no politics in the question, as both candidates for justice were in favor of the change. This statement was flatly contradicted yesterday by Harry Corbeley, the Republican candidate for this position, who declared that the first that he knew of the matter was upon reading the published notice that the petition had been filed. As a matter of fact, the Dry Creek precinct is a very strong Democratic stronghold, and Justice Beall, who is having a very hot contest on his hands this year for re-election, would like to add the good votes of the Academy country to his list. He will have considerable advantage in this effort, as not only is there a Democratic majority on the Board of Supervisors, but the Supervisor from the Clovis district is George W. Beall, a cousin of the justice of the peace who is seeking re-election. Chairman J. P. Bernhard of the Republican county central committee, said yesterday: "There will certainly be a strong protest entered against the proposed transfer of Dry Creek precinct to the Clovis district before this coming election. It was under the present district organization that the delegates to the county convention were elected, and the candidates named for office. It certainly savors of political unfairness to make a change when it is found that in one district there will be no contest and in the other the Democratic candidate is having a hard fight, which the transfer will assist."

"It is quite possible that, on general principles, the boundaries of the tenth precinct should be changed, to give the voters easier access to their officers, but in all fairness it should not be done at this time in the interest of a particular candidate. Big Dry Creek is noted as a strongly Democratic precinct, and of course Justice Beall would like to see the change made."

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Physical and Medical Examinations Made.

The young men of the local Y. M. C. A. are now able to find out of just what physical benefit the gymnastic exercises are to them. The can be measured and tested at the start and finish of the year's work and can ascertain from the cold figures just how much strength and endurance they have acquired from their work. Physical Director Fee has a collection of the most elaborate apparatus for testing the strength of all the muscles and is prepared to give any of the boys an examination after class hours. Dr. Wallace, who has been secured to give medical examinations, showing the fitness or unfitness for certain kinds of exercise, put several of the boys through the test last night and will be on duty tonight also.

This afternoon all the juniors are to give a gym drill on the gymnasium floor, to determine to which class they shall be assigned and in the evening a similar but more severe program will be gone through with the seniors.

Last year, the intermediate class was so small that it was thought that there would be none started this year, but a sufficient number signified their intentions of joining that class and at the first meeting of the season yesterday afternoon, there were thirty-one boys on the floor, a number three times as great as were enrolled last year. The junior class started yesterday and showed a great increase also. The intermediate class is for boys of 15 and 16 years of age and the junior class is for those of from 12 to 14 years.

Bible Class.

All those intending to take up bible study for this year are to meet at a supper tonight at 6.15 for the purpose of organizing and outlining the year's course.

HELM TRIAL WILL CONTINUE TODAY

Chief Shaw Returns Venue of Porty Trial Jurors.

This morning at 9.30 o'clock the selection of a jury to try Willie Helm on the charge of having murdered W. J. Hayes on the 30th of last October, will proceed before Judge Church. Chief of Police William Shaw, who was appointed last Monday, yesterday made his return to the court.

The men were drawn this time from the vicinity of Reedley. The list follows: Joseph Whitney, William McCreary, Olof Olson, A. L. Dohm, Jno. A. Larson, Amos Hess, A. E. McLannahan, W. L. Schellley, A. E. Lyon, A. G. McDonald, J. W. Hogan, Dan Egan, McDonald, C. E. Schroeder, M. H. Harrison, Ed. Berthold, Dave Gavin, C. P. Shaffer, J. W. Gillingham, G. E. Pinkerton, A. A. Barnes, Amos Peck, Geo. Hopkings, A. H. Baker, A. E. Simpson, J. C. McQuibbin, C. W. Shaw, H. V. Reed, J. L. Bartholomew, H. W. Ensign, W. T. Bryans, R. C. Gregg, R. W. Ross, C. C. Jensen, Isaac W. Porter, M. Clapp, Ben Holzer, Joe Blair, C. P. Brimner, J. D. Davenport and F. A. Campbell.

There are only three more jurors needed to complete the jury and it is thought that these will be secured out of the forty summoned. The defense has used up its twenty peremptory challenges and this will facilitate the getting of a jury.

HOMEWARD BOUND IS CAVALRY TROOP

Troop F, Fourteenth Cavalry, Returns from Summer Tour of Duty in Park.

Troop F, 14th Cavalry, has completed its tour of summer duty in the Sierra and is now homeward bound for the headquarters base at Monterey. The men filed into town yesterday in double column formation and picketed in the courthouse park for a day's rest from their arduous overland hike. The command is under Captain Kirby Walker, who has as adjutant officers Second Lieutenant Norman H. Davis and Surgeon H. Jones. The troop's first lieutenant is away on detached service.

The organization is made up of fifty-two enlisted men, with about 80 horses and mules, and three teamsters and packers of the quartermaster's department.

The troop will leave at 7 o'clock this morning.

STEALS CLOTHING AND SKIPS OUT

J. Chapman Is Missing With a Quantity of Clothing Belonging to Fellow Lodgers.

Charged with stealing clothing and valuables belonging to his fellow lodgers in a rooming house at 515 P street, J. Chapman is just now a badly wanted man by the police, but they entertain slender hopes of getting him unless he is tripped by the police of the city to which he has skipped out.

Yesterday afternoon, W. T. Cartwright, the proprietor of the lodging house, swore out a warrant in Judge Smith's court, charging Chapman with larceny. The total amount of the fellow's pilfering is said to be between $40 and $50, and may come under the statutes of a grand larceny charge. He had been drinking and was practically a stranger in these parts.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. B. Greely of the forestry service is a guest at the Hughes, having arrived last night.

P. B. Mongil and wife are at the Hughes. They arrived on the Owl from the city last night.

Mrs. J. E. Stubbs, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. W. J. McNulty and Miss Martha Sprengle, at their home on T street, has returned to Reno.

James Ryan will leave today for a fortnight's trip to the southern coast on his vacation. Mrs. Ryan will not accompany him, but will take a vacation trip later.

Miss Ella Bishop is here on a visit to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Smith. She is from Oakland, but formerly lived here, where she attended the High School.

F. Ladouceau, a business man of San Francisco who makes frequent visits to this place, is here on a business trip and will stop for a few days. He is a guest at the Ogilvie house.

C. C. Arkle and wife arrived on the Owl last night and will stop here for three days on business. They are from Forterville, where Mr. Arkle is in the shoe business. They are staying at the Ogilvie house.

A. G. Wishon and Forest Supervisor H. White left Fresno yesterday morning in Mr. Wishon's automobile for Crane valley. Mr. Wishon will look over the work of the San Joaquin Power company at Crane valley and Mr. White is bound for the state convention of forestry supervisors at North Fork.

MANY MINERS ARE ENTOMBED

Explosion in West Virginia

Mine Is Serious.

Rescue Parties Have Been Unable to Penetrate the Workings.

BLUEFIELDS, W. Va., Oct. 3.—As the result of an explosion this afternoon at the West Park mines of the Pocahontas Colliery company, where the explosion of 1902 occurred, in which Superintendent O'Malley and sixteen others lost their lives, twenty-five men are supposed to be entombed. Two rescue parties have entered the mines, and up to 11 o'clock tonight two men, named Dolbert and Goddard, have been rescued and revived. The mine is reported to be on fire, and the work of rescue is retarded. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Great excitement prevails in the neighborhood of the mines. Crowds of men, women and children remain about the mouth of the mine, anxiously awaiting news of relatives and friends.

The explosion took place in what is known as the St. Paul entry to the mine. Reports of the number of entombed men vary from sixty to 100 men. The lack of brattice cloth helps to retard the rescue work and a carload of it is being hurried forward on a special train from Bluefield. The definite results of the explosion will not be known for perhaps twelve hours.

The force of the explosion was hardly noticeable at the mine's mouth, as the entry in which it occurred is two and a half miles in the mountain. A number of men in the south mine were almost suffocated by the fumes.

REPUBLICANS NAME SUPERIOR JUDGES

Three Democrats Are Selected After Conference—Nominees for Legislature Chosen.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Three Democrats were placed on the Republican judicial ticket by the Republican County convention which convened tonight to nominate four superior judges, four assemblymen and a state senator.

After a conference with the Democrats and the Union Labor people, the convention nominated four judges for the Superior court, Thomas F. Graham, J. V. Coffey, Edward P. Morgan and Charles T. Conlan.

Judge Graham, who is at present on the Superior bench, is the only Republican on the county judicial ticket as named by the convention. Coffey, also incumbent, and Police Judges Morgan and Conlan are Democrats.

The following nominations were made for the legislature: Assembly, fourth district, Henry Thompson; fourth district, Samuel T. Kohlman; thirty-second district, Dan W. Barry; thirty-sixth district, Eugene F. Pfaule.

For senate, eighteenth district, Dan J. Riley.

BISHOP MORELAND ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Episcopal Prelate, While Not Favoring Blue Laws, Objects to Paganism on Sunday.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 3.—At the session of the thirty-first convention of the Episcopal diocese today, the principal address was delivered by Right Rev. W. H. Moreland, diocese bishop. He reviewed the work for the year in the large district supervised by him and said that notwithstanding the great loss by earthquake and fire he was glad to be able to report material progress. During the past year he had confirmed 320, including a larger number of men than ever before in one year. Not a parish nor a mission is vacant in his jurisdiction.

He said that Nevada is growing rapidly in wealth and population and church work is keeping pace with the changed conditions. Goldfield has a large congregation and is going to put up a $15,000 church.

The bishop devoted a considerable portion of his address in an argument in favor of a Sunday law. He has no sympathy with "blue laws," neither does he believe in acting like pagans on Sunday. Noisy rowdiness, horse racing, ball playing, drinking, the increase of drunkenness and crime—are the result of not observing Sunday. The demand for it is in the interest of humanity, not a religious condition. There should be one compulsory rest day, and that should be Sunday.

CRUISER CALIFORNIA TO HAVE TRIAL TRIPS

Naval Board Will Be Composed of Officers Stationed on the Pacific Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The new armored cruiser California, which has just been completed at the Union Iron works, left today for Santa Barbara where her trial trip is to be held. Naval Constructor Holden A. Evans, head of the construction and repair department of Mare Island; Captain Giles B. Barber, of the receiving ship Independence and Commander Henry C. Clearing of the equipment department, left Vallejo this evening for Santa Barbara, where they are to serve as members of the naval board which will conduct the trial trip of the cruiser.

This will be the first time the trial trip of a vessel built on the Pacific coast has been conducted entirely by officers stationed in this vicinity; it having been customary heretofore to send out members of the regular board of inspection from Washington.

Don't Mind The Bruises

Don't refrain from skating for fear you'll take a tumble. All of us have to take a tumble sooner or later. We have seen people tumble over their own feet, and they didn't have skates, either. There are a lot of people who tumble without having skates; but we want you to tumble to the fact that we have the biggest and best stock of skates in Fresno. If you tumble come and see us.

G. W. Barker was arrested by Officer McColl on a vagrancy charge. Despite the fact that many employers in the city and county are looking high and low for men, the fellow has been loafing about with hard luck stories of being unable to get employment.

TO PROTEST AGAINST BLACKTONE SALOON

A petition for a saloon license on Blackstone avenue was presented to the Board of Supervisors yesterday morning. The petitioner is Max Zastrow, who asks permission for a license to conduct a saloon on property owned by Mrs. Elta Rhodes. The petition is endorsed by W. A. Platte, C. Hurly, L. B. Hieman, A. U. Wnekors, Roy Hompel and Mrs. J. Mahoney.
The petition was read for the first time and laid on the table until the November session of the board. It is understood that a remonstrance will be filed by the residents in the neighborhood of the proposed saloon who protest strongly against the granting of the license. They contend that the petition is not signed by five out of the nearest ten inhabitants as the law provides and that the establishment of a saloon in that neighborhood is extremely undesirable.

The Season's First Concert.

Those who heard Prof. G. S. Warrill's wonderful basso cantante voice at the Barton opera house last May, are looking forward with pleasure to hearing him again next Tuesday. Two Spanish numbers to be heard here for the first time are "La Fandango" by Alvarez, and "La Cita Nocturna" written by Jose Vazquez. Prof. Warrill's instructor at the conservatory of music at Madrid. Both of these are favorite melodies of the professor's and will constitute two of the most pleasing numbers on the program. In spite of the general excellence of the program, it is desired to give all music lovers an opportunity to attend this concert, and it has therefore been decided to put the price of admission at 30 cents.

SOCIETY

A fitting and brilliant close to the first convention day of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was the reception given last night in Armory hall by the ladies of General Tyree Bell chapter in honor of the visiting ladies. It has been many a moon since Fresno has seen a more distinguished or more handsomely gowned assemblage of women than gathered last night. And the ladies were well supplied with chivalrous cavaliers, for the gentlemen were out in large numbers and made it their special duty to look after the fair daughters of the South who were the guests of the evening. The hall was robbed of its bare appearance with icy pillars which have formed the decoration of the hall throughout the convention. Fresh baskets of ferns and flowers added their share to the decorations last night and made an appropriate setting for the beauty and gallantry represented in the company.

Miss Nellie Bowler, chairman of the reception committee, was receiving in a shiny gown of ruffled net with a corsage bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Alford Hunter, Voorhies of San Francisco was unusually distinguished in an exquisite gown of rich gray satin brocade trimmed in duchesse lace and ornaments of diamonds. Mrs. Millie K. Harris was charmingly gowned in a white polka dotted net costume over shell pink tulle. Mrs. Albert M. Stephens looked particularly stunning in a handsome gown of chintilly lace over white silk. Mrs. Winifred of Redlands looked extremely well in a gown of black net. Mrs. Robinson of Los Angeles was a noticeable figure in a beautiful decollete gown of black lace with coral ornaments. Mrs. W. Phillips wore a noticeably attractive costume of silver gray muslin lace trimmed. Mrs. Samuel J. Churehill wore a white lace dress. Mrs. Short, White of San Francisco, wore a white crepe and lace. Mrs. Fannie Minor was a valued addition to the receiving party. She wore a becoming gown of black crepe d'indian and lace. Mrs. J. D. Gibbs was noticeable in a gown of diaphanous lace with transparent yoke.

Mrs. W. T. Marvin, a charming Los Angeles woman of patrician bearing, was attired in a beautiful gown of black lace over yellow satin which displayed admirably her graceful figure. Mrs. George Rowland looked very handsome in her dark coloring emphasized by her gown of rich white brocade. Mrs. H. M. Johnston was sweet and dainty looking in a gown of pale blue crepe with a bertha of rose point. Mrs. Wiley J. Tinnin looked her best in a gown of black and silver diaphanous net.

And this is not half the lovely costumes there, for every one looked her prettiest. The following young ladies were in charge of the punch bowls, which were conveniently arranged about the hall: Misses Betty Maupin, Adeline Thornton, Mary Meux, Anne Meyer, Annabel Cummings, Laura McCord, Edna Cooper, Hallie and Emil Scott, Nellie Strother, Carrie Bell, Lillian Walton.

A business session of the Parlor Lecture club will open the club year today in Riley hall. Tea will be served at the close of the business session.

Miss Elinor Dixon is the guest for several weeks of her cousin, Miss Louise Mordecai at the Mordecai ranch near Madera. She is the daughter of the late Henry S. Dixon and a sister of Maynard Dixon, the young California artist. With Miss Mordecai she is visiting Mrs. W. D. Coates during convention days.

ODD FELLOW SIXTY YEARS

W. B. Hall Has Been in Order Nearly Six Decades.

Was Initiated in Rebekahs Last Night, Although 80 Years Old.

In W. B. Hall Fresno can claim the proud distinction of possessing one of the oldest Odd Fellows in the nation. For nearly sixty years Mr. Hall has been a member of the order, during which time he has held office and acted as delegate to various conventions. Although he is nearly eighty, he is in excellent state of physical preservation and does not look anything like his great age. This vigorous grand old man of Odd Fellows launched forth in an innovation last night when he was initiated into the Rebekahs, being conferred with the degree and the enthusiastic felicitations of a large gathering.

Another candidate to enter the body was Mrs. Haggerty, who was initiated at the meeting last night.

Danish Brotherhood.

Half a hundred beaming faces gathered around a horseshoe table laden with a sumptuous banquet of good cheer last night, when the Danish Brotherhood gathered up their business meeting and adjourned to a social session. The host was Chris Jorgensen and the spread was of his bounty as a purveyor of good fellowship. The only thing to mar the pleasure of the evening was the unavoidable absence of Mr. Jorgensen himself, as he was called away on business at the last moment. But the Danes made the best of it among themselves in his absence and succeeded fairly well in the effort. With merry song, recitation and general entertainment from all present, in their native tongue, the hours sped on into midnight and beyond when the happy throng dispersed after spending one of the happiest social functions that the order has witnessed this season.

Fraternal Brotherhood.

The regular meeting of Rialta City lodge No. 292, of the Fraternal Brotherhood, last night, was followed by one of the most charming socials of the season. The event was attended by many friends of the members and included an excellent program of vocal and instrumental music with re-

The Ladies Klatch met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. E. L. Chaddock and Mrs. Chase Sayre as hostesses, at the former's home. After the long summer of recreation there were a number of things to talk over and the afternoon was scarcely long enough to satisfy the happy little coterie of friends—fourteen in number who have for the past several years enjoyed such delightful weekly sessions together. The work bags are always conspicuous features of these gatherings but yesterday it is whispered they were almost neglected in the general exchange of summer vacation gossip and merriment. As a usual thing, however, the ladies are the souls of industry and much dainty embroidery, and even the more substantial branches of needle work, is accomplished, while various affairs pertaining to the household machinery are seriously discussed. Miss Charlotte Colby of Berkeley and Miss Felita Smith were guests yesterday. Next week Mrs. Charles Bonner will entertain the members at her home in the country.

Colonel and Mrs. Wright of New York city are in Fresno for several months visiting Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. Hutchinson.

Rather an alarming accident befell little Austin Gray, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gray, yesterday afternoon while he was horseback riding, and in consequence the little chap is under the doctor's care. It is thought he is not seriously injured. While turning a corner on Tulare street, the horse stumbled, throwing the little boy violently to the ground, striking his head as he fell. While still unconscious, he was carried to the office of Dr. Maupin, where he received care immediately and his mother was sent for. Late last night he was resting quietly and it is hoped that he will soon be quite recovered.

Mrs. Dozier of Oakland is visiting Mrs. William Walker Phillips during the U. D. C. convention.

The Wednesday club members spent a most delightful afternoon yesterday with their president, Miss Julia Sayre, who entertained the club at "President's day." This first meeting of the year is a day set apart for the president's own and she entertains as she pleases. Miss Sayre pleased to entertain in a particularly pleasant way. The rooms were lovely in decoration of autumnal tints—a veritable harvest bounties typical of California. Great bunches of luscious purple grapes hung temptingly from the chandeliers in the dining room, while the gold and red of golden rod and dahlias added a brilliant coloring to the room. Above the arched doorways, graceful trails of grape vines showed in warm autumn tints. A pyramid of fruits and flowers formed the center piece of the refreshment table in the dining room where a tempting array of delicacies were offered the guests.

The day was essentially one of summer reminiscence, each in turn contributing to the story telling of the afternoon. From mountain and sea shore came the scenes for the "stories" and many original plots were ingeniously disclosed. Mrs. A. J. Sayre of Madera sang several beautiful songs which were enthusiastically received in the happy-mannered circles. Mrs. L. R. Wilson (Miss Ida Isabelle Millard) read a beautiful reading which was enthusiastically received and much enjoyed. Two new members have been added to the club, Mrs. W. E. G. Saunders and Mrs. S. S. Hockett, in place of Mrs. E. T. Nesbit and Mrs. Angus Clark, who had resigned because of change of residence.

Delicious refreshments were served and an alert committee of arrangements attended to the entertainment of guests with the carrying out of a fine social program which went through without a hitch.

The program included the following: Devotion by Homer Hixie, vocal solo by Mrs. Hixie, piano solo by Master Herschel Tyson; monologue, Hugh Shelton; vocal solo, Miss Emma Kolb; recitation, Miss Emma Dryer. Ladies of Macabees.

The Ladies of Macabees held a special meeting yesterday afternoon for the discussion of plans for a social and dance to be held next week, and a committee formed of the following members was designated to carry out the social: Mesdames Beal and Noble, Sadie Martin, Lizzie Beal and Noble. In the evening a surprise was given to Mrs. Hixie at her home, 700 N. street, at which refreshments were served during a delightful entertainment by those present. Mrs. A. J. Baker was admitted to membership at the meeting, and two applications were received.

Order of Railway Conductors.

The ladies of the Order of Railway Conductors met in their new lodge room last night for the first time. The order formerly held meetings in the Kohler hall, but with increasing members and social obligations it was found expedient to move into a larger and more central place. The Knights of Columbus hall was selected for the purpose and they convened there last night. The regular business meeting, at which two applications were considered, closed with an elegant social session with an entertainment and refreshments.

TRACTION COMPANY ELECTS OFFICERS.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Fresno Traction company yesterday morning officers for the ensuing year were elected. The officers for the past year were re-elected to office. A. C. Balch of Los Angeles was chosen president. A. G. Wilson, vice-president and manager; W. E. Durfee, secretary and treasurer. F. H. Short and C. A. Jenkins complete the board of directors. Mr. Balch was not present, his stock being voted by proxy.

LACAFF IS IN FRESNO

Construction Superintendent Arrives Here.

Says Work on Federal Building Will Begin at Once.

F. L. Lacaff, superintendent of construction on the new Federal building now in course of construction here, set all doubts as to his whereabouts at rest by arriving at Fresno last night. He arrived at San Francisco from Honolulu yesterday morning and proceeded at once to Fresno.

Mr. Lacaff and wife and child sailed from Honolulu on the Sonoma last month and were seven days late in making the passage of the Pacific. The authorities at Washington wired Postmaster Short day before yesterday to ascertain if Superintendent Lacaff had yet arrived here.

Mr. Lacaff spent yesterday afternoon looking over the plans of the new building and inspecting the work of excavation. He expressed himself as satisfied with what has been done and says that he will have a large gang of men commence work on the foundations at once. The stone for the new building is arriving every day from the East and enough material has arrived already to permit the work being resumed at once.

Mr. Lacaff says that the question as to whether stone or terra cotta is to be used in the cornice work of Uncle Sam's new structure is up to the department at Washington and must be decided there. He says that the wishes of the people here will receive consideration but must be taken with other considerations as to the best expenditure of the surplus money.

Today will undoubtedly witness the resumption of work on the building and it will not be long before the structure will begin to take on shape.

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS OPEN THEIR CONVENTION

Representative Southern Women from All Parts of State in Annual Gathering—Reports of Officers Show Prosperity—Mrs. Victor Montgomery of Santa Ana Reads Paper on Need of Educational Work.

Mrs. Alfred Hunter Voorhies of the Albert Sydney Johnston Chapter of the National U. D. C.

With the familiar strains of dear old "Dixie," the patriotic song of the southland, the sixth annual convention of California Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, opened yesterday morning in Armory hall. It was a gathering of women drawn together by social rather than political bonds, essentially home women whose home ties are stronger and loved ones more dear than anything else in the world. While their hearts are bound up in their beloved South, there are narrow or petty feelings and the patriotism of the last century is united in the broader and deeper patriotism represented in the stars and stripes.

Mrs. W. D. Crichlow, Mrs. Kate Parsons and Miss Minnie Marshall formed a trio who with Mrs. M. P. Holmes at the piano opened the convention with the singing of "Dixie." In the chorus of which the entire convention joined with great spirit. Rev. J. J. N. Kennedy invoked divine blessing on the assembly, after which a welcome was extended by the various chapter hostesses. Sidney Strother, who had been expected to extend the welcoming address to the visiting delegates, was unable to give it on account of illness in his family at the last moment.

Among the chapter hostesses of this valley who extended words of welcome were Mrs. M. K. Harris of Fresno, Mrs. E. C. Hendricks of Modesto, Mrs. Knox of Visalia and Mrs. Schick of Bakersfield. The president, Mrs. Albert M. Stephens, of Los Angeles, gave the response in a delightfully courteous little speech. Mrs. Stephens presides with dignity and ease and fills the presidential chair most satisfactorily.

The impressive ritual of the United Daughters of the Confederacy formally opened the convention. It was joined in heartily by all the convention, led by the president. Mrs. Victor Montgomery gave a most complete and comprehensive report from the credential committee, of which she is chairman. She is a forceful woman in the convention and one of the state ex-presidents. A commanding presence and winning personality, she is a natural leader and is looked to as one of the prominent women of the state work.

She reported seventy-three votes in the convention, a gain of three votes over last year.

The roll call of chapters was responded to personally in nearly every case, either by the president or some one representing her. Mrs. J. D. Gibbs of the Los Angeles chapter gave a detailed report of the rules and regulations committee of which she is chairman. Mrs. Montgomery Thomas added to the entertainment of the ladies with a vocal solo, "Spring Song," by Oscar Weil, which was so enthusiastically received that Mrs. Thomas was obliged to respond to a recall, which she did very cordially, singing a quaint little number called "Oye Ladye." Her voice was heard to the best possible advantage in both numbers. Miss Annie Newman accompanied.

A touching feature of the close of the morning session were the words of two old confederate veterans who at the cordial invitation of the president addressed the ladies. Every heart in the convention was warmed by the sound of their voices, as in treasured tones they offered their greetings to the ladies, the old time gallantry standing out as one of the charming parts of their spoken words. Rev. Warren Compton was one of the veterans. He served as chaplain with General Sterling Price. Nathan B. Smith, one of the few survivors of Joe Shelby's artillery brigade, cheerfully addressed the ladies, expressing his sincere pleasure at being present in such a distinguished gathering. Mrs. Stephens, with a cleverly put intimation of the fondness of southern women for gentlemen's society, extended on behalf of the convention a cordial invitation to all confederate veterans to attend the meetings.

This closed the scheduled program for the morning, but as it was still early the convention voted to continue the program. Accordingly, the reports of the various state officers were given. Mrs. William T. Johnston gave a bright, breezy recording secretary and gave a concise and interesting report of the program of the work. She also reported for the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Alexander Jones, who quite suddenly was called to the bedside of her daughter in the East. The convention voted to send Mrs. Jones a message of sympathy.

The registrar, Mrs. Samuel J. Churchill, fills her office most admirably and is a distinct addition to the convention. Her report showed the General Bryce Bell chapter to have gained the most new members. Although there appeared to be a falling off in the membership, Mrs. Montgomery explained that it was occasioned by the changing of chapters. A new chapter for Mrs. Gagner (age of River-side, the treasurer, showing the treasury to have $39.78 in its account. Mrs. Montgomery likewise gave the report of the auditing committee, of which she is the capable chairman. All the state officers who reported expressed their cordial appreciation of the cooperation of the ladies and their aid in carrying on the sometimes arduous work.

The noon hour was delightfully equipped with a luncheon given the delegates in Bixley hall by the members of the Visalia, Bakersfield and Modesto chapters, who assisted in this way in the entertainment of the visitors. The young women of the Episcopalian circle furnished the luncheon in "treasure chest style" and it was without saying that it was a sumptuous one. The tables were decked in roses and carnations and besides the substantial feast there were palatable "trimmings" of a literary variety which rounded out the affair delightfully.

The following program of toasts was in charge of Mrs. W. B. McElroy. Mrs. J. deBarth Shorly, one of the distinguished visitors in the convention and president of the Albert Sidney Johnston chapter, No. 70, of San Francisco, responded to the toast, "Mothers of Our Confederacy." Mrs. Frank Walker, president of the Dixie chapter of San Francisco, followed with a toast to the president of the chapters. "The Daughters of the Confederacy" was the subject of a charming toast by Mrs. C. P. Wimberly of the General John H. Morgan chapter of Hollanda. Most beautifully and fittingly did Mrs. Robinson of Los Angeles respond to the toast, "The Veterans of the Confederacy."

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session of the convention opened with a whistling solo by C. LeBaron Shirrell as unique as it was entertaining and received hearty applause demanding an encore. Mrs. A. V. Mitchell, state historian from San Jose, gave a full report of the year's work of the chapters and in conclusion urged that for the benefit of the historians reports from the local historians of chapters be sent as early as September in order that they may be gotten into proper shape for presentation as a whole and that they be as brief as possible. Following that was the president's address which she explained was purely a business one dealing with affairs of immediate importance to the various chapters as individuals and the state body as a whole. In opening, Mrs. Stephens said: "I am glad that we are able to meet together once more. When we last met each other good-bye, to the most of persons who have reached years of maturity, came the question: 'What changes will take place before we meet again, and who will be missing from among us?' It would hardly be possible for anyone, no matter how vivid and morbid an imagination they possessed to have pictured the terrible disasters that have befallen the largest and handsomest city in our state, the city in which we all felt so much pride, and to whose people we will always be grateful for their generous entertainment of the general convention last year."

"Although we fully realize the great sufferings and privations that have been endured by our members whose homes were in that city, yet we are truly grateful that we are not called upon to mourn the death caused by this calamity of any member of our organization."

Following Mrs. Stephens spoke of the work of the relief committee at the time of the San Francisco misfortune. The president welcomed two new chapters into the convention, the Joseph LeConte chapter of Berkeley and the John H. Rangan chapter of Los Angeles represented by the president. Mrs. W. T. Marvin, who gave briefly an account of the organization. The question of the uplifting and education of the descendants of confederate soldiers in the South was mentioned in the president's address. This question it seems is likely to bring about no little discussion for and com. Mrs. Stephens says of it: "Any plan suggested by Mrs. Henderson, the general president, will no doubt meet with a generous and sympathetic response from the chapters of the California division, for although we are so remote from this work, a large portion of our hearts is still in the South, and we realize the necessity for prompt action in this matter."

The death of the honorary president of the division, Mrs. John Shirley Ward, of Los Angeles, was deeply deplored. In concluding Mrs. Stephens thanked her corps of officers for their support and urged a stronger union of forces for combined efforts toward success.

A vocal solo, "Salve, Regina," by Mr. Walter Olney, the gifted young baritone, met with enthusiastic applause and he responded to an encore of "The Night When a Thousand Eyes." Mrs. Montgomery's paper which followed speaks for itself:

"When first considering the subject of this little talk to you, something in a light and interesting vein that should relieve the tedium of a hard business session, seemed the proper thing. My mind naturally turned to the literature and life of the South, particularly the old South, and the wit and wisdom of its traditions was strong upon me."

"To its story-tellers and sweet singers, not great, perhaps, as the critics count greatness, but what may, after all, be better able to touch the lives and hearts of their own people, and to enshrine themselves within the love of their countrymen. Famous ballads of that olden time, renowned for wit as well as beauty—brave, brave men, statesmen, patriots and soldiers, trooped before my mental vision, and like

Noes—Trustees none.
Absent—Trustees none.

W. H. RYAN,
City Clerk and ex Officio Clerk of the Board of Trustees of the City of Fresno, California.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 60.

RESOLVED, That it is the intention of the Board of Trustees of the City of Fresno, State of California, to order the following street work to be done in the said City, to-wit:

That "R" Street, in said City, from the North line of "Q" Street to the West line of "S" Street except such portion thereof as is required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon be graded, curbed and sidewalks approaches built thereon, in accordance with the plans and profile on file in the office of the City Engineer, and specifications on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City.

One brick culvert to be constructed across "R" Street on the North side of said City.

Curb plank to be set on the official grade, with gutters one foot deep on each side of the street, except at crossings, the center of the street to be three inches higher than curb grade and the street bed to have a uniform curve from gutter to gutter. The sidewalks of said street, between the same limits, also to be graded to the official grade thereof, except where already paved or planked, or where already paved or planked, consisting of 3x11 inch redwood plank 12 feet long, firmly spiked to 4x8 inch redwood posts 32 feet long, set in the ground flush with the curbline, 5-1/2 feet center to center, with at least four 6x6 nails in each plank at each post. The curbs at the corners of the blocks to be beveled with a plank 4 feet 3x11 inches, firmly spiked as above at each end.

The Fresno Morning Republican, a daily newspaper published and circulated in said City, is hereby designated as the newspaper in which this Resolution of Intention and notice of the passage thereof shall be published in the manner and by the persons required by law.

The Superintendent of Streets of said City is hereby directed to post notices of the passage of this Resolution in the manner and in the form required by law, and to cause a similar notice to be published for six days in said newspaper in the manner required by law.

The City Clerk of said City is hereby directed to post this Resolution of Intention conspicuously for two days on or near the Chamber door of the Board of Trustees, and to cause the same to be published by two insertions in the manner required by law in said daily newspaper.

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was passed by the Board of Trustees of the City of Fresno, California, on the 1st day of October, 1906, by the following vote:

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS

"I should put in the foremost place for historical readings: The Rise and Fall of the Confederate Government, Jefferson Davis, a model in style and exhaustive in its treatment of constitutional questions; War Between the States, by Alexander H. Stephens; Campaigns of Stuart, by H. B. McChesney; Johnston's Narrative, by Joseph E. Johnston.

"Works on biography and reminiscences: Jefferson Davis, a Memoir, by his wife; Life of General R. E. Lee, by Fitzhugh Lee; Two Wars, by General S. G. French; Destruction and Reconstruction, by Richard Taylor; Stonewall Jackson, by Dabney; Stonewall Jackson, by his wife; Reminiscences of the Civil War, by General John B. Gordon; Advance and Retreat, by General J. B. Hood; Life of General Forrest, by John A. Wether; Peace and War, by Mrs. Roger A. Pryor; A Hells of the Fifties, by Mrs. Virginia Clay Clayton; Hammer and Anvil, by J. E. Eaton.

"All the southern poets, Lanier, T. W. Higginson, Thomas Nelson Page's stories, especially Red Rover; The Leopard's Spots, by Dixon; In the Wake of War, and those two books of John Estlin Cook which are regarded more as history than fiction; Survey of Eagle's Nest and Mohun.

"I mention these books because I have read them. There are many more that should be added. I have not given you a bibliography for young children, but for the advanced grades high schools and college students.

"I can but believe that a careful study of the part the South has taken in the making of American history must endear his country to the boy of Southern descent. The facts that his forefathers waged two great wars for the sake of political liberty, the important part taken by them in the foundation and establishment of this government; the unselfishness, but none the less magnificent fight for separate autonomy made by his nearer predecessors; the honesty of purpose, and true love of home and country shown by these same men in manfully accepting the decree of arms, and returning to the pursuits of peace that they might and did turn desolation into comfort and plenty, and bring order out of chaos. The enthusiastic response of the South to the call for volunteers in the Spanish war, shows a true American spirit and devotion to principle.

"Contemplation of these things should produce men to whom this soil is sacred ground, consecrated by the blood of their sires, and to whom the future of America can be trusted with every confidence in their unswerving loyalty and devotion to its best interests.

"As a strictly memorial society the U. D. C. may and probably will outlive the grandchildren of the youngest living veteran who followed the stars and bars; but to be a factor in the new South, it must prepare to meet the active needs of the future. It is not enough that it should inspire high ideals, and point to noble examples, it must by practical methods assist the progress of the coming generations of the Southland to a plane worthy of the men whose memory we seek to immortalize. It is well that we raise monuments to our dead, as costly as our resources will permit; that we plant fragrant flowers and train the clinging vines about their last resting places; that we heap flowers upon these graves in proof of our unforgetfulness. It is better that we administer to the happiness of the few who are yet present with us but we must not neglect to make of the men and women, who are coming after us, the noblest monument the South can offer to her heroes.

"We speak of the New South that now is, and is to be. The South that shall be new in prosperity, in progressiveness, in material wealth and the power of renewed energy; but the New South must take root in the same soil as the old, and be nurtured by the same elements. The same skies smile above it, the same mountains watch over its valleys, the same shining rivers run to the sea, and the same blossoms flower in the vine of its children, or in those of the men who made the Old South famous. Thousands of dollars have been poured into the South by philanthropic people of the North for the education of the colored race, but the white children of the poorer classes have been left to the provision of states impoverished by war and its consequences.

"A large proportion of the school taxes go to establish and maintain public schools for these same colored children, as the proportion of the population in the so-called 'Black Belt' is largely in favor of the darkies.

"Texas, so far as I know, is the only confederate state that has school lands over a school tax; and as separate institutions must be provided for white and black, the small isolated districts are necessarily inadequately equipped. Poverty often prevents the best use of such opportunities as are offered, as it is necessary to work in order to live.

"Some of the divisions are taking hold of this work, and are educating children of confederate veterans; but the scope should be enlarged. There is an old Scotch proverb which says: 'Many nickles make a muckle' and the broader educational work which the future seems to demand from the U. D. C. can not be done by individual chapters, nor even by divisions working separately, but the 'many nickles' contributed by the component parts of the whole organization, would amount to a fund large enough to produce practical results, and, used by competent women of our society who understand the peculiar needs of their section, would be of great value.

"A certain association has been formed for the purpose outlined, and has asked assistance from the U. D. C. to carry on its educational designs. While its objects are most commendable, I can not agree with our president general when she says that the U. D. C. is too large an organization to be auxiliary to anything.

"We should not wait for others to undertake a work which seems particularly our own, but should take the initiative and today lay the foundation of our increasing usefulness which must grow with the years, and while our beloved association shall still retain its memorial characteristics, shall also be in touch with and a part of living issues."

Mrs. Marvin Pope Holmes next played a Chopin polonaise which was done so well that there was an urgent demand for an encore. The memorial service that followed, conducted by Mrs. Anna G. Pratt of the General E. Kirby chapter, presided by Reverend McElwaine, was deeply impressive, paying a beautiful tribute to the deceased members and stirring the heart-strings of many of the assembled convention.

The following committee of resolutions was appointed by Mrs. Stephens: Mrs. Robinson of the Los Angeles chapter, Mrs. Duncan of the Jefferson Davis chapter, of Berkeley, Mrs. Inez Shurtz White of the Albert Sidney Johnston chapter, Mrs. Harris spoke to the convention largely of the free-planting scheme inaugurated by Mrs. Alfred Hunter Voorhies of San Francisco, and Mrs. Voorhies was asked to come to the platform and speak of it to the ladies.

One of the most interesting women of the convention is Mrs. Alfred Hunter Voorhies of the Albert Sidney Johnston chapter of San Francisco and first vice-president of the national body of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Voorhies is thoroughly alive to the best interests of the organization and her personality has been keenly felt in all state and national meetings. She is broad in her views and gives a number of matters her personal attention. Chiefly she is prominent in her free-planting scheme which besides furthering the interests of the industry is commemorating in a very beautiful and lasting manner the deeds of the confederate heroes.

Wherever she goes, she agitates the question of free-planting and sees that at least a small "southern grove" is begun. When the national convention met in San Francisco, each state brought a tree to be planted in the presidio grounds in memory of some hero. These trees Mrs. Voorhies arranges shall be cared for in proper manner. Whenever she visits an Eastern city she carries with her a sapling ginkgo and plants it in some public spot where it is cared for by the city authorities. It is Mrs. Voorhies' idea to plant here in Fresno trees in memory of General William Bate, Colonel Will S. Green, Major C. C. Clay and Reverend Scott of San Francisco, the latter a chaplain with General Jackson. In addition, a number of the visiting chapters have brought trees and will plant them naming them for their chapter. Mr. Wislun has very kindly offered a spot in Recreation park, where Mrs. Voorhies may have the planting done. However, since this is not tree planting time in Fresno it was suggested that a temporary place be dug where the trees could be nurtured until the proper time arrives to plant them permanently.

This suggestion was put to vote and adopted by the convention. The ceremony of tree planting will then be observed after adjournment this afternoon in a place to be determined upon later. The financial report by Miss Nora Queen, in her absence, was read by Mrs. N. D. Rideout. The report of commemorative meetings committee was given by Mrs. Robinson in the absence of Mrs. Laura Dake, chairman. An automobile ride out Kearney avenue at 8:30 this morning will be the first of today's program of entertain-

LOS ANGELES IS SECOND

Bert Says Corbett Had No Right With Seals.

President of Pacific Coast League Settles Contested Games.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Club	W	L	Pct.
Portland	101	17	.852
Los Angeles	81	71	.532
Seattle	84	72	.538
San Francisco	77	71	.520
Oakland	66	81	.449
Fresno	53	102	.340

The above is the official standing of the baseball clubs comprising the Pacific Coast League. The exact standing of the clubs has long been a matter of doubt as the record was forgotten and lost in the mix-up following the San Francisco disaster. Then after the league was started going again several games were protested and the record could not be completed until these games had been settled.

San Francisco won two games from Los Angeles with Joe Corbett in the line up and the games were protested on this ground. President Eugene L. Best had no right to play with the Seals and three out to games. The same action was taken in the protested game between Oakland and Portland played at Portland on the 10th of last August in which the Webbe team, San Francisco, protested the game won by Seattle on the ninth of last month was not allowed.

The San Francisco papers had been giving all three games in which San Francisco was concerned to the Seals, and consequently had the Seals in the second place until President Bert's decision day before yesterday set them right.

Word has been received from San Francisco that the above percentage column is correct. The standing includes the games played by the clubs yesterday.

The race just now seems to be for the second position in the column. It is generally conceded that Portland has the head of the column cinched and that Mike's bunch cannot be deprived of their place in the bottom of the cellar. Los Angeles has forced Seattle out of the place from which she forced San Francisco only last week and is now at the second place. Both the Seattle and Los Angeles clubs are playing the best baseball in the league just now and this week may see some more shifts in the percentage column.

PACKING HOUSE MORALS NOT SPECIALLY BAD

Employer Deprecates Criticism Based on Isolated Cases.

Editor Republican: I have read the sermon published in your paper in regard to social life in the packing houses, and it seems to me to reflect rather severely on the employees of the packing houses. There are good and bad people among us in all walks of life, and our morality is no worse than will be found in department stores, offices and other places where women are employed, the only difference is that there are more of us.

Of course a preacher gets stuck once in a while, for a good topic, and he order to live up to it he has to bring forth something that will "take" with the people. Humanity is always an attractive subject and easy to talk about.

I think the preacher ought to get a better line on the true conditions in our packinghouses, and not pick out a few isolated cases to lash up for the morally morbid. His sermon will do no good, and will prevent many well-meaning girls from seeking employment in good wages, because of the false impression he has made.

Yours truly,
HENA JOHNSON,
Packinghouse Employee.

Candidate Committed Suicide.

PETALUMA, Oct. 3.—P. H. Lawler committed suicide last night by swallowing carbolic acid. He was a candidate for justice of the peace on the Republican ticket. He had been in poor health for a long time.

Georgia Election Perfunctory.

ATLANTA, Oct. 3.—Returns from today's state election indicate that a light vote has been polled over the state. The Democratic ticket, headed by Hoke Smith for governor, has been elected by the usual majority, there being no opposition, except the Socialists, headed by J. B. Osborn.

FREE FROM DISEASES

Unusual State of Good Health in County.

Dr. Long Calls Attention to Lack of Sewer Connection at County Hospital.

According to Dr. G. L. Long, the county health officer, Fresno county is enjoying at this time unusual freedom from diseases or sickness. There have been no epidemics of any kind for some months past, and the number of cases of non-epidemic sickness has been very small.

The fecity of physicians with regard to making health reports to the county physician continues, and it is a question if the state law on this point is to be enforced at all, how it can be done. This last month only four physicians out of the sixty in the county made any report to the county health officer.

The cases reported by these four physicians are as follows: Neuralgia, 3; bronchitis, 2; diarrhea, 3; malarial fever, 27; influenza, 6; typhoid fever, 1; rheumatism, 4; pleurisy, 1; pharyngitis, 1; total, 56.

Dr. Long wishes to remind school trustees in all parts of the county with regard to their duty in the matter of enforcing the vaccination law. Under the state health law, no pupil should be permitted to attend the public schools unless duly vaccinated, and it is the duty of the trustees to see that this matter is strictly observed. It should be attended to early in the school term as possible.

The sanitary conditions at the county hospital are reported to be in very bad condition. There is no sewerage system, not even a cesspool, and the sewage is allowed to run out into the open fields to the northwest of the institution, so that the prevailing winds at once take the foul odors back to the wards where the patients are kept. When complaint was made to the hospital management about the handling of the sewage, the excuse was made that the farmer in charge of the field did not show up the ground often enough.

Dr. Long made recommendation to the Board of Supervisors that, in connection with the construction of the new almshouse arrangements be made for connecting the hospital and almshouse at once with the city sewer system.

Dr. J. L. Martin, Physician and Surgeon, $3000 equipment, latest and most successful methods of examination and treatment. X-ray, Fluor light, etc.

All persons having claims against the San Francisco Relief Committee are requested to file same with secretary of Chamber of Commerce on or before Oct. 6th.

The balance are regular ladies' sizes. Only one or two of a kind. The best and latest styles in 22 to 24-inch jacket effects. The materials come in all shades of broadcloth, cheviot and plaid mixtures; special for $17.50.

Clothes for the Youngster

Notice the cleverness of these styles, how charmingly they are created. They are duplicates of the garments we shall show today.

Every mother with a young school girl will be interested in this showing. Particularly when our prices are so moderate. We carry the most complete stock of infants' and children's clothes to be found in this city, and we have always maintained a scale of prices below those of any other store.

Dresses $1.25.

A very nice collection of French dresses in wool mixtures, made with the double box plaited fronts, gauntlet cuffs with a wide hem, silk stars and bars on the plaits over the shoulders. A dress well worth $2; will be on sale at $1.25.

Pretty Coats $5.

Just as we picture them. A plaid coat in all wool materials; notice how dressy the garment is; made in a number of good styles; straight back. Empire back, or with capes over the shoulders; materials in wool coatings, kerseys and covers, velvet collar, coat trimmed with silk braid and velvet, some with the long velvet cuffs; buttons to match.

Infants' Dresses.

For convenience we have divided the sale dresses into four lots and marked them at very low prices. Every garment is nicely made, fine enough to suit the most particular mother, and the prices are low enough to please the most economical.
